Bonaire Information

We are going back to everyone's favorite dive location, Bonaire, situated in the southern Caribbean off the coast of Venezuela near Aruba and Curacao. The climate is much different than the northern or central Caribbean islands and is desert-like with a short rainy season in November/December. There is also a much lower hurricane risk. Bonaire has a unique beauty and exceptional diving.

When: October 6 to 14, 2007

Hotel: Buddy Dive Resort

Experience Bonaire and Buddy Dive Resort. Bonaire is an unhurried, unspoiled natural paradise offering spectacular sunsets, gentle breezes and crystal clear, turquoise waters.

Buddy's is a resort where you can DIVE, DIVE, DIVE, take part in a multitude of activities or just sit back, relax and enjoy the atmosphere.

At Buddy Dive, they're known for their casual atmosphere, personable staff, spacious accommodations and a dive operation that has it all: comfortable boats, complete rental and retail center, exceptional staff, and a unique "Drive Thru" with a two-lane air/nitrox fill station. No matter which apartment you are staying in, you're never further than a giant stride away from our popular and lively house reef which is perfect for diving and snorkeling, day and night.

Climb into the rental truck you receive automatically with your Drive & Dive Package, and take advantage of the 60 dive sites, accessible from the shore line of Bonaire or tour the island with a guide on one of many excursions available to you through the Activity Center.

Divers, snorkelers, adventurers and leisure travelers will feel equally at home at Buddy Dive. You will want to save plenty of time to relax in a hammock, lounge by one of our three pools, simply catch some rays or saunter on down to the pool bar for a cocktail before sampling some of the local specialties.
